I certify that I have developed or reviewed the structural design, plans, and specifications for construction and that the proposed design and methods of construction are in accordance with accepted standards of practice for meeting the following provisions:

- The bottom of the lowest horizontal structural member of the lowest floor (excluding piles and columns) is elevated to above the BFE; and
- The pile or column foundation and structure attached thereto is anchored to resist floatation, collapse, and lateral movement due to the effects of wind and water loads acting simultaneously on all building components. Water loading values used are those associated with the base flood. Wind loading values used are those required by the applicable State or local building code. The potential for scour and erosion at the foundation has been anticipated for conditions associated with the base flood, including wave action.

Section VI: Breakaway Wall Certification Statement

NOTE: This section must be certified by a registered engineer or architect when breakaway walls exceed a design safe loading resistance of 20 pounds per square foot

I certify that I have developed or reviewed the structural design, plans, and specifications for construction and that the design and methods of construction to be used for the breakaway walls are in accordance with accepted standards of practice for meeting the following provisions:

- Breakaway wall collapse shall result from a water load less than that which would occur during the base flood;
- The elevated portion of the building and supporting foundation system shall not be subject to collapse, displacement, or other structural damage due to the effects of wind and water loads acting simultaneously on all building components (wind and water loading values to be used are defined in Section III).
